COLLEGE STATION, Tex. (KBTX) - If you enjoy made from scratch Mediterranean food, there's a new spot in town you may want to check out.

Zoës Kitchen is opening Tuesday, August 22nd at 11:00 a.m. at Century Square in College Station.

The casual lunch and dinner spot has soups, salads, pitas, bowls and more.

Their CEO and President, Kevin Miles, is a 1989 graduate of Texas A&M and says he's excited to bring the restaurant to Aggieland.

The first fifty people in line will get to spin the 'Goodness Wheel' to win various Zoës treats including gift cards, cookies, family meals, and party packs.

The store is also giving away Zoës sports cups and will offer free refills in that sports cup for the first month the store is open.

Zoës Kitchen is located inside the Century Square development at 1099 University Drive, Suite 115 in College Station.
