

LUCCHESE Bootmaker to Kick Up its Heels in Century Square

Nationally known, Texas bootmaker will open its eighth store in College Station

COLLEGE STATION, TEXAS (May 15, 2020) – Midway announces its newest tenant at Century Square, the premier mixed-use development just steps away from Texas A&M University.

Lucchese Bootmaker will occupy 1,437 square feet on the ground floor of Century Square Two, adjacent to PORTER's Dining & Butcher, The George Hotel and directly across from the Cavalry Court hotel.

Known for building the world's finest handmade boots, Lucchese will offer Bryan/College Station its legendary boot collections along with premium belts, small leather goods, and accessories for both men and women of the Brazos Valley. For the full bespoke experience, opt to schedule an on-site appointment with a boot specialist to create your custom constructed boot.

From President LBJ to Texas country star, Parker McCollum, Lucchese is worn and appreciated by many. Whether you're going dancing at Hurricane Harry's, headed to a fightin' Texas Aggie Football game or it's just another day at work, Lucchese prides itself on quality offerings that will last you a lifetime.

"Lucchese is thrilled to have the opportunity to become a part of College Station's Century Square, the Brazos Valley's premier community destination." says Lucchese President Doug Kindy. "Almost a century ago on March 29, 1925, twelve members of Texas A&M University's Corps of Cadets visited our Lucchese factory in San Antonio, Texas, to be measured and fit for Lucchese Military Boots, at a cost of just $37.00 a pair! Since then, we have been honored to provide legendary comfort and fit to those who call Bryan-College Station home and we are anxious to become part of the fabric of this wonderful community. Gig' em!"

Midway CEO Jonathan Brinsden says, “We are enthused to bring a such a revered brand to the community. The tenant mix at Century Square continues to come together to thoughtfully include locally-owned and national brands that pair well for an outstanding experience for residents in the Brazos Valley.”
